About Hindi

If you are interested in India and all things Indian, you must learn Hindi. Hindi is the lingua franca of Northern India and the most widely spoken language in South Asia. Spoken by more than half a billion people (and growing), Hindi empowers the learner to gain a deeper understanding of a culture which is eons old and enables the learner to interact closely with its people.

Incredible India is the land of the Himalayas, of Buddha, of the Ramayana and not forgetting Yoga, with a diversity of people, culture and ideas from both east and west and the mixing of ideas both old and new. This fusion of people from the Aryans, the Mughals and the British has created a truly dynamic and magical India, known for its contrasting landscapes of sea, desert and mountains and its cuisines of Tandoori chicken and exotic Naans, not forgetting Bollywood, the most iconic representation of Hindi with its mesmerizing dance and colourful dialogues.

Learning Hindi in a globalized world economy definitely gives the Hindi learner a clear advantage where India with its young and highly educated workforce and a market of a billion people is taking centre stage. It allows one to be immersed in the language and culture of the people who speak it. It enriches the experience, nurtures the soul and leads the learner on a lifelong rewarding experience.
