Programme Objectives

课程概述

To provide a comprehensive and high-quality programme for students interested in Chinese literature, history, philosophy, language, and issues related to overseas Chinese communities. Students from various backgrounds are welcomed to apply. This programme will also provide graduate training for Chinese Language teachers, editors, journalists, and other relevant professionals that use Chinese as a major language medium.

Academic Requirements

入学标准

- a) An NUS Honours degree (Merit/Second Class and above) or equivalent (e.g., a four-year Bachelor's degree with at least an average grade of B or equivalent) in the subject or related field; or
- b) A good Bachelor's degree (at least an average grade of B or equivalent) in the subject or related field and successful completion of a placement test; or
- c) Other qualifications and experience subject to approval by Graduate Studies Division, Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences. Relevant cases will be routed to Board of Graduate Studies for information.

Applicants whose native tongue and medium of university instruction is not English should submit the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) or International English Language Testing System (IELTS) as evidence of their proficiency in the English language.

The following minimum score is required:

- 85 for the internet-based TOEFL test (with a minimum score of 22 for the writing section); or
- 237 for the computer-based TOEFL test; or
- IELTS result of 6.0.
