

NATIONAL UNIVERSITY OF SINGAPORE
Department of Geography
Full time Teaching Assistant in Physical Geography

The Department of Geography NUS invites applications for a full-time Teaching Assistant in Physical Geography. The appointment will begin on 1 August 2020, or as soon as possible thereafter, and run for a period of 24 months in the first instance, with subsequent offer of renewal subject to performance.

The candidate should have a strong Bachelors degree in Geography, Environmental Science or a related topic. A Masters degree in a suitable discipline and skills in Geographical Information Systems (GIS) will be advantageous. The candidate will assist with the implementation of key introductory modules offered by the Department of Geography, such as GES1004 Biophysical Environment of Singapore and GET1001 Seeing the World through Maps. The candidate may also assist with modules in GIS and overseas Field Studies if they have the appropriate skills. The job scope will include, but is not limited to, assisting lecturers with module organization, set up and co-teaching of laboratory and tutorial sessions and grading of assignments and exams. This position will involve substantial interaction with students.

Where applicable and to enhance existing skill sets and future employment prospects, the successful candidate will be encouraged to apply for postgraduate courses in the Department of Geography and to pursue lifelong learning opportunities available for NUS staff and alumni.

The application deadline is 15th July 2020. A full curriculum vitae, and names and contact details of three referees should be sent to:
