

CONTEMPORARY TRADITION

JAPANESE PERFORMANCE GENRE TODAY

Date : October 13th – 15th, 2016

Venue: AS8-04-04 & AS8-06-46 (NUS) and
The Arts House at Old Parliament
Lane

For more information, please visit :

<https://contemporarytradition.wordpress.com>

OR scan this code:

Scholars and practitioners will discuss issues pertaining to traditional Japanese performance genres including Noh, Kabuki, Kyogen, Heikyoku and Koto. Topics include contemporary scholarship on historical and literary aspects of the genre; adaptation in contemporary societal and cultural settings; strategies and avenues to reach out to a wider audience; developing noh into English noh, etc. There will also be a lecture-demonstration conducted by Theatre Nohgaku on Oct 15 Saturday at the Arts House.

