

Open Rank Faculty Positions in Psychology, National University of Singapore

The Department of Psychology at the National University of Singapore (NUS) invites applications for up to 8 faculty positions. Rank is open, although a majority of the appointments are expected to be made at the assistant professor level. We welcome applications from all areas.

Selection for professor and associate professor appointments will be based on established research and teaching records. Appointment as assistant professor will be on potential for impactful research and effective teaching. Candidates should hold a Ph.D. or an equivalent doctorate-level qualification.

Consistently ranked as one of the top universities in Asia and the world, NUS is internationally respected for its high-quality research that addresses complex and critical issues facing Asia and the world. This mission is embraced across NUS' 17 Schools and Faculties, as well as its 30 university-level research institutes and centres. NUS offers an internationally competitive 12-month salary package and benefits, on top of generous start-up packages that are tailored to individual's needs and personal growth. Beyond the university's resources, there are also substantial opportunities to win research grants from government agencies and ministries.

The Department of Psychology has well-established undergraduate, graduate research and graduate clinical psychology professional training programmes. The department consists of an internationally diverse group of faculty members who are committed to excellence in research and teaching. Information on our faculty, teaching and research programmes is available at <https://www.fas.nus.edu.sg/psy/>.

Interested applicants should submit their complete applications (cover letter, CV, research and teaching statements, key publications, and three references) and the NUS Personal Data Consent for Job Applicants online at <https://academicjobsonline.org/ajo/jobs/17244>.

Queries may be directed to the chair of the search committee at pvowyl@nus.edu.sg.

Review of applications begins 15 November 2020 and continues until the positions are filled. We regret that only shortlisted applicants will be notified.
