

Singapore Children's Society John M. Elliott Memorial Research Grant

About Singapore Children's Society

Singapore Children's Society was established in 1952, and works to protect and nurture children and youth of all races and religions. In 2022, the Society reached out to 21,559 children, youth and families in need

Today, its services have evolved to meet the changing needs of children. Currently, Children's Society operates more than 10 service centres islandwide, offering services in the four categories of: Vulnerable Children and Youth, Children and Youth Services, Family Services, and Research and Advocacy.

Singapore Children's Society Research Grants

We encourage research projects related to local children, youths, or families. We believe that continued empirical research enables cost-effective planning of social and welfare services for children and families. To support this work, we provide a one-time grant usually not exceeding $1,000.00 per study to support students pursuing research on issues related to family, children, and youth at the Undergraduate or Honours levels. Applicants pursuing higher degrees (e.g. Masters, PhD etc.) may be considered for a higher quantum. Expenses supported include but are not limited to transport allowances for field research and material costs.

Acceptable research topics include, but are not restricted to, the following:

- Child abuse and neglect
- Childcare and parenting practices
- Marital issues (e.g. divorce, spousal violence etc.)
- Issues affecting service planning and provision
- Juvenile delinquency
- Schools /education issues
- Other areas related to children and family

How to Apply:
