Dear Alumni and colleagues in social work

RE: Ann Wee NUS Social Work Alumni Award

The Department of Social Work in NUS is coordinating an initiative to establish an award to recognize NUS social work alumni, our 'unsung heroes/heroines' who has shown commitment and provided sustained contribution to serving our constituents, the service users, and to the well-being of the Singapore community as a whole over the years.

This award will be named after Mrs Ann Wee who was one of our earlier Heads of Department and for some of us, our social work teacher as well. We are all impacted by her contribution to the profession and to our professional development as a result of her long term commitment to social work and social work education which extends beyond her retirement. Many of us also appreciate her sharpness of mind and sense of humour. It is therefore fitting that this social work alumni award which honours NUS alumni be named after her, someone who has quietly supported the social work profession over the years. Only NUS social work alumni will be considered for the award. A more detailed set of selection criteria will be worked out through a committee that will include Mrs Ann Wee.

Your support in the establishing of this social work alumni award will be much appreciated.

The Department's own social work alumni will be coordinating the initiative. They are:

1. S. Vasoo, email: swkvasoo@nus.edu.sg; tel: 65166118
2. Peace Wong, email: swkwyj@nus.edu.sg; tel: 65166636
