

Outstanding Intern Scheme

Objective

The Outstanding Intern Scheme is an initiative by Fei Yue that offers outstanding students with the passion to serve in Social Services, a good head-start in your career.

Students eligible for this scheme will each receive a once-off education allowance of S$3000 and embark on a fulfilling career in Fei Yue as a full-time Social Worker upon their graduation.

Established since 1991, Fei Yue is a Social Service Agency with over 30 centres across Singapore, which provides a wide range of services and programmes that reach out to families, children, youths and elderly. Fei Yue offers a wealth of development opportunities, regular and professional clinical supervisions, a dynamic staff community who effect life transformation in clients, and a warm and welcoming family who actively help each other succeed. Students can find out more about Fei Yue at www.fyco.org.

Criteria

Students eligible for the scheme must meet the following criteria:

- Singapore Citizen or Singapore Permanent Resident
- Undergraduate for a Degree in Social Work (1st or 2nd Major in Social Work) from the National University of Singapore (NUS)
- Completed two field placements with Grade B & above for the second placement
- Latest Cumulative Average Point (CAP) of 3.5 and above

Application

Eligible students who are interested to embark on a fulfilling career in the Social Services industry can apply for this scheme by completing the Intern Scheme Application form at the following link and emailing it to "recruit@fyco.org". Applications will close on 3 September 2021.
