

Ann Wee Master of Social Work Scholarship

The Scholarship will be awarded to support practicing social workers from the Voluntary Welfare Organisations (VWOs) who are undertaking the Master of Social Work (by coursework) programme at the Department of Social Work.

The award of this Scholarship will commence in AY2015/16 Semester 1.

Application Period

Applications will be opened from May to early July. Master students pursuing a degree by coursework, in the Master of Social Work programme are invited to apply.

Value of Scholarship

The tenure of each Scholarship will be for one year to cover tuition fees and provide a small stipend of S$600/month for 12 months. The amount of stipend may be adjusted accordingly.

Disbursement

The Scholarship will be disbursed directly to the Office of Finance for payment of the Scholarship holder's tuition fees in Semester 1 and Semester 2.

Eligibility

- Singaporean citizens;
- Practicing Social Workers from VWOs;
- Admitted into the Master of Social Work (by coursework) programme or current Master of Social Work (by coursework) students;
- At least a second lower honours degree, i.e. Class 2B (for new students) or CAP of 3.5 (for current students);
- Financial indicator, i.e. monthly salary of the applicants will be given the highest priority in the event of equal academic merit between two or more applicants;
- Students awarded the Scholarship are not allowed to hold any other bursaries or scholarships from NUS or other organizations without the consent of the awarding Committee.

Application Process

Students are required to complete the application form.

The completed form, together with the supporting documents, must be submitted to Ms Krystal Kwan at swkbox10@nus.edu.sg.

Successful applicants will be notified by email.

Upon Successful Application

Submit the Acceptance Form.