

Alice Goh Scholarship

Madam Alice Goh was the first wife of one of Singapore's founding leaders, Dr Goh Keng Swee. A pioneer of children's social service centres in Singapore, she was widely remembered as an able administrator who was quiet but popular. In memory of the late Madam Alice Goh, her family has set up an endowed fund with the Department of Social Work, Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences, National University of Singapore to establish the Alice Goh Scholarship.

The scholarship will be awarded to deserving Undergraduate, Masters (by coursework) and Graduate Diploma students from the Department of Social Work.

The award of this scholarship will commence in AY2013/14 Semester 1.

Application Period

Applications will be opened in September for a month and announced to students. Students embarking on the Social Work Honours programme, Masters students pursuing a degree by coursework, in the Master of Social Work programme, and students pursuing the Graduate Diploma in Social Work programme are invited to apply.

Value of Scholarship

Scholarships of S$7,000 and up to a maximum of $10,000 each will be awarded in each academic year to Undergraduate, Masters (by coursework), and Graduate Diploma in Social Work students.

Disbursement

The Scholarship will be given to the students by November.

Eligibility

- Only Singapore citizens or Singapore Permanent Residents will be eligible for the Scholarship.
- Financial need (based on indicators such as family per capita income indicator) will be given the highest priority in the event of equal academic merit between two or more applicants.
- Students awarded the Scholarship are not allowed to hold any other bursaries or scholarships from NUS or other organizations without the consent of the awarding Committee.
- Undergraduate Level
A Social Work student embarking on the Social Work Honours programme or fourth year of studies, who has a minimal GPA of 4.0 and minimal B+ aggregate for field practice courses, indicating potential to become both a scholar and an excellent social work practitioner.

- Masters and Graduate Diploma Levels

A Masters (by coursework) student enrolled in the Master of Social Work programme, or Graduate Diploma student enrolled in the Graduate Diploma of Social Work programme, who has completed at least 2 Social Work courses at level 5000 and above with a minimum grade of “B” each for the 2 courses.

Application Process

Students are required to complete the application form.

The completed form, together with the supporting documents, must be submitted to Ms Wendy Lim at swkbox10@nus.edu.sg, within the application period.

Successful applicants will be notified by email.

Upon Successful Application

Submit the Acceptance Form.