

Master of Social Work (MSW)
Tuition Fee Structure for Singapore Citizens and Permanent Residents

(For students admitted in Academic Year 2027)

Tuition Fees and Structure

- Singaporean and Singapore Permanent Resident students (either full-time or part-time) will be billed based on the number of courses read per semester.

Subsidies & Rebates

- Singaporean and Singaporean Permanent Resident students may be eligible to receive subsidies of up to 90% for NUS courses funded by the Skills & Workforce Development Agency (SWDA)¹.
- An MSW tuition fee rebate of 30% will be applied to the per-course fee of non-SWDA subsidised courses. Students who are in receipt of scholarships and/or other NUS financial assistance will not be eligible for the MSW tuition fee rebate.

Per-course fee after applicable rebate and/or subsidy (inclusive of 9% GST)	Rebate / Subsidy (if applicable)	Remarks
S$5,886.00	-	Full course fee (before any rebate/subsidy)
S$4,120.20	MSW Tuition Fee Rebate (30%)	MSW tuition fee rebate cannot be combined with other fee rebates, subsidies and/or financial assistance.
S$588.60	SWDA subsidy (90% for Singapore Citizens and Permanent Residents ≥ 40 years old)	Students can only take up to 5 SWDA-funded courses.
S$1,765.80	SWDA subsidy (70% for Singapore Citizens and Permanent Residents)

¹ Singapore Citizens and Singapore Permanent residents who are 40 years old and above (in the year of admission to the programme) may be eligible for up to 90% subsidy. Those who are below 40 years old may be eligible for up to 70% subsidy. Please refer to the SWDA website here for more information about the SWDA SkillsFuture funding and eligible subsidies.

Important Notes

- The University reserves all rights to review and adjust fees as necessary, without prior notice.
- Students who i) take more than the required 10 courses or ii) fail a course and need to repeat/replace the course, will need to pay the full course fee for the additional and/or repeated course(s).
- Fees paid are not refundable in the event of non-completion of the programme.
