

Hochstadt Scholarship in the Humanities

The Hochstadt Scholarship in The Humanities was set up by Mr Herman Ronald Hochstadt to commemorate the Hochstadt family in Singapore past and present, in particular those who were graduates of the University of Malaya and the National University of Singapore.

The purpose of the Scholarship is to award scholarships to students from the Faculty, who major in Humanities subjects. Humanities subjects include English Language, English Literature, Theatre Studies, History and Philosophy. In 2019, an additional scholarship will be awarded for the Philosophy, Politics and Economics (PPE) programme.

The award of this scholarship commenced in AY2014-15 with the award of up to five scholarships in each academic year, one from each of the Humanities subjects.

From AY2018-19, the scholarship was offered as an entrance scholarship for outstanding incoming students to the Faculty. Entrance scholarship candidates would be offered the scholarships at the point of being offered admission to the Faculty. Subject to sufficiency of funds, the Scholarship may be offered as a Mid-Stream scholarship to Year 1 students majoring in Humanities subjects.

From AY2019-20, the scholarship is extended to the Philosophy, Politics and Economics (PPE) Programme.

Up to six scholarships may be awarded in each academic year, one from each of the Humanities subjects and the PPE programme.

The Scholarship will cover the Scholarship holder's tuition fees (excluding the MOE Tuition Grant) tenable for 1 year only. The scholarship will be disbursed over 2 semesters.

Matriculated students may refer to the FASS Student Portal for application details and more information on the award.
