

'Singapore Malays: Being Ethnic Minority and Muslim in a Global City-State' by Hussin Mutalib

In his new book, Associate Professor Hussin Mutalib (Political Science), examines multiple facets of the 'Malay Muslim story' in Singapore.

The Malay population makes up Singapore's second largest ethnic group. This book presents holistic and extensive analysis of the 'Malay Muslim story' in Singapore. Comprehensively and convincingly argued, the author examines their challenging circumstances in the fields of politics, education, social mobility, economy, leadership, and freedom of religious expression. The book makes a significant contribution to the understanding of Muslims in Singapore, and the politics of a Malay-Muslim minority in a global city-state. It is of interest to researchers and students in the field of Singaporean studies, Southeast Asian Studies and Islam in Asia.
