FASS Alumni Bursary

FASS together with its alumni champions organized a golf event in March 2019 to raise funds for the FASS Alumni Bursary. The purpose of the fund is to provide assistance to financially needy undergraduates from the Faculty. As at 1 March 2019, donations of $243K has been received for the FASS Alumni Bursary.

Sub-naming opportunities were offered for donations of $25,000 each. Two FASS Alumni-(sub-named) bursaries were established with donations of $25,000 each. The award of these bursaries commenced in AY2020-21.

In 2021, the bursary quantum for the FASS Alumni Bursary, FASS Alumni-Win Advisors Bursary and FASS Alumni-Quantedge Foundation Bursary was increased to $2500. The changes will take effect from AY2022-23.

In 2022, a donation of $25,000 was received for the establishment of a sub-named Bursary - FASS Alumni-Hua Family Bursary. The award of this bursary will commence in AY2022-23.

FASS Alumni-(sub-named) Bursary

- FASS Alumni-Quantedge Foundation Bursary

The Quantedge Foundation donated $25,000 to establish the FASS Alumni-Quantedge Foundation Bursary. The Quantedge Foundation was established in 2015 to carry out the philanthropic mission and charitable activities of Quantedge Capital and its affiliated persons. The Foundation has a broad range of charitable objectives including the relief of poverty and the advancement of education with specific focus on Singapore. It aims to deliver impactful solutions to social issues and challenges in Singapore by focusing on areas where the Foundation can achieve the largest amount of social good per dollar spent.

- FASS Alumni-Win Advisors Bursary

Ms Winnie Cheah Yean King, an NUS Business School alumna donated $25,000 to establish the FASS Alumni-Win Advisors Bursary. Win Advisors was set up by Ms Winnie Cheah in 2001. Ms Cheah is a strong believer in influencing and developing people to take charge of their lives. She set up Win Advisors, whose vision is to be an organization where people are leaders of self and others, as she sees great fulfillment in transforming ordinary individuals into successful advisors making a positive impact to their lives professionally and personally.

- FASS Alumni-Hua Family Bursary

The Hua Family donated $25,000 to establish the FASS Alumni - Hua Family Foundation Bursary. The family consists of the late Mr Hua Pak Cheong, Madam Joyce Tsai, Mr Michael Hua and Mr Terence Hua. This sub-bursary is established by Mr Michael Hua who is an alumnus of NUS FASS. He is a career banker specialising in the area wealth management. Mr Hua believes firmly that Singaporeans should actively seek to give back to this society that we are all an integral part of. The notion of service, giving and sense of purpose to a cause that is larger than the individual is one of the key tenants that will bind Singaporeans together. Through this bursary, Mr Hua would like to help financially-needy FASS students through their journey in NUS so that they will in turn be inspired to give back to Singapore.

The value of the FASS Alumni Bursary and sub-named bursaries is $2,500 per award, tenable for one year only. Recipients may be considered for the award in subsequent years.

The Bursary is open to undergraduate FASS Year 3 and Year 4 students in any FASS major.

Matriculated students may refer to the FASS Student Portal for application details and more information on the award.
